Most of Menzie's entertainment career has been spent behind stage, but now she is under the spotlight. For about two years, she sang with a band that toured the Midwest. She then moved to Warsaw where she took a job at the Wagon Wheel box office. Within two years, she was managing the theater.

She then worked as director of marketing at the Embassy Theater in Fort Wayne. She also worked as musical director and vocal coach at Indiana-Purdue University PIT Theater, Fort Wayne.

Her most recent stint has been at the Pegasus Players, a full-season theater in northwest Chicago on the campus of Truman College. She worked as director of publicity and marketing, and now returns occasionally to perform.

She now lives outside of Chicago and performs in many of the city's top cabaret clubs including Gentry, Hev'in, Stars and Boombala.

Benediction..............Reverend August Lundquist, Class of 1951

The 99th Alumni Banquet was held on June 5, 1993, in the Pierceton Middle School gymnasium. The alumni were welcomed by Clint Pletcher, president of the Class of 1967 and a member of the alumni committee. The invocation was given by Richard Sellers, Class of 1943.

A wonderful buffet dinner was served by the cafeteria staff and enjoyed by alumni and guests.

The entertainment was provided by the PHS Alumni Band marching to the stage playing the school song. Mr. Cleon Marsh, band director, conducted. The band also played the song "Memories." Next, the Warsaw Boot Scooters, a line dancing troupe, entertained the audience.

The business portion of the meeting commenced with the reading of the minutes. The treasurer's report was read and approved. After expenses the treasury balance is $#2157.24.

Clint then introduced and acknowledged the fine work of the Alumni Committee. Members of this year's committee included the following 1967 graduates: Sharon Collier Lehman, Rosemary England Trump, Jean Trump, Kathleen Rood Smith and Clint Pletcher. Particular appreciation was expressed to Sharon Lehman for her very hard work in chairing the committee.

Instead of electing officers, it was decided to set up a committee to plan next year's 100th celebration. The Alumni Committee for the 100th Alumni Banquet was then introduced. Members are Jeanette Mast, Claud Stahl, Edith Stickler, Kenneth Fawley, Rosemary Parsons, Valda Collier, Beth Wood, Roger Thomas and Marilee Bailey.

Clint then introduced Mr. Cleon Marsh and Mr. Richard Reed, former principal and band director, respectively of PHS.

The honor classes were then recognized. Speaking for the classes were Brad Schuldt, Class of 1968; Doug Rood, Class of 1963; Cynthia Wilson Russell for the Class of 1958; Dan Steckbeck for the Class of 1953; Deverl Kirkpatrick, Class of 1948; and Mary Galbreath Stouder, Class of 1943. The audiences enjoyed the reminiscences of these graduates.

Thank yous were expressed to all who helped set up tables, made table decorations and helped to clean up. The flower centerpiece was presented to Maud Yontz, who was unable to attend.

The benediction was then given by Reverend August Lundquist, Class of 1951.

William " Bill" Conrad dressed in a white sport coat, pink carnation and white buck shoes was delighted to welcome all present, on behalf of the class of 1958.

The pledge to the Flag was recited. Next, Bill asked all the choir members of Pierceton High School to please assemble in the front. With some reservation approximately 20 people came forward. This special choir led the entire alumni in the singing of National Anthem.

PIERCETON HIGH SCHOOL
114TH ALUMNI
June 7, 2008

The Pierceton High School 114th Alumni was held June 7, 2008, 6:00 pm at the Pierceton Elementary School with 249 pre-registered alumni and guests. William " Bill" Conrad dressed in a white sport coat, pink carnation and white buck shoes was delighted to welcome all present, on behalf of the class of 1958.

The pledge to the Flag was recited. Next, Bill asked all the choir members of Pierceton High School to please assemble in the front. With some reservation approximately 20 people came forward. This special choir led the entire alumni in the singing of National Anthem.

Invocation was led by Richard "Dick" Cole class of 1958.

A delicious meal was prepared and served by the Pierceton cafeteria staff. The meal consisted of steak, ham, baked potato, corn casserole, broccoli salad, dinner rolls, pie, coffee, ice tea and water for a cost of $8.00 per plate.

Following the meal a round of applause was given to the cooks and helpers. The 2007 minutes were read by Bill. Deb Thomas gave the Treasurer's report. Both reports will be filed with the alumni records. Special thanks to Deb Thomas for her guidance in making this alumni, such a memorable and special occasion.

Bill Conrad presented the class of 1958: Don Boggs, Judith (Brygider) Johnson, Jim Busz, Dick Cole, Jack Horn, Judy (Lee) Kreider, Roger Leedy, Leah "Kay" Leifer, Richard Rosbrugh, Pattylu (Russell) Humke, Jack Warner, Brent Widman and Cynthia (Wilson) Russell. Leah and Bill reminisced about the good ole times spent at PHS. It was soon revealed how much we had remembered or forgotten over the past 50 years.

A moment of silent prayer was given in memory of all the deceased Pierceton Alumni. Those from the class of 1958 were Phyllis (Williamson) Miller, Beverly (Spangle) Smith, Rex Slusher, Jim Ratliff and Marlene (Bennett) Leiter.

George Shaffer was recognized as being the oldest graduating member present – Class of 1929. Other Honorable mention classes were 1938, 1943, 1948, 1953, 1963 and 1968. White balloons with red streamers marked the spot of each honor class.

The beautiful flowers decorating the tables were given as door prizes. The raffle of a Pierceton Afghan was won by Jim Busz, class of 1958. Raffle tickets were sold $1 each or 6/$5.00 - amount collected $154.00.

Bill Conrad closed the meeting and encouraged everyone to remain for visitation.

MINUTES FOR 2010 PIERCETON HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI BANQUET

The 116th Pierceton High School Alumni Banquet was held at the Pierceton Elementary School Cafeteria on Saturday, June 5, 2010. The class of 1960 chaired the event with the following persons serving on the committee: Marvin Galbreath, Jeanette Mast, Mary Lou McFarren, Barb Faris, Doug Walls, Nancy Walls, Anita Krebs, Callie Shafer, Janet DeGood, Diana Reinhart, Bob Stump, Bob Cole, Rex Cole, Judy Bame, and Linden Boggs.

Marvin Galbreath presided during the evening, with the theme being "Cruising Thru' the 50's". After explaining to the crowd that Galbreaths first settled the Pierceton area in 1839, he reminded everyone that Joan Hostetler was in the lobby collecting old Pierceton area photos in preparation for the town's 150th birthday.

Those who served in the military from the class of 1960 were asked to stand, followed by recognition of all veterans from Pierceton High School who were in attendance. The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag were recited by the group, and all joined in singing the School Fight Song, led by the cheerleaders from the class of 1960.

Before the meal, Linden Boggs led in prayer. The menu consisted of Swiss steak, turkey, mashed potatoes, mixed vegetables, cole slaw, rolls, pie, lemonade, water, and coffee (all prepared by the school cafeteria staff.) There were 258 paid registrations for the evening, with the price being $14.50 each.

After the meal, the secretary's report was read by Nancy Walls and accepted as read. The treasurer's report was read by Deb Thomas and accepted as read. Deb was presented with a gift of appreciation for her continued efforts regarding the alumni banquet.

Recognition and rounds of applause were given to former teachers Richard Reed and Marilyn Tuttle Curtis.

The following classes were the honor classes of the evening:

1930 - no attendees
1935 - no attendees
1940 - Rosemary Parsons introducing the 5 members present
1945 - Ralph Bailey introducing the 5 members present
1950 - Glen Snapp, the only member present
1955 - Gary Barnes introducing the 11 members present
1965 - Brenda Leedy Ross introducing the 8 members present
1970 - Tom Pletcher introducing the 3 members present
1960 - the 50-year class - Marvin Galbreath introduced the 27 members present

Recalling memories of the 1959-60 school year, Marvin spoke of it being a good time to grow up, how safe it was to just hop on a bike and go somewhere. Westerns were popular at the time, with "Gunsmoke" being the most popular TV show. Movies of the 1960's included Psycho and Magnificent Seven. It was also the year Clark Gable died. Sports figures were Bill Russell, Mickey Mantle, and Ted Williams. Elvis Presley and the Everly Brothers were music stars of the time. Ike was president and leading the nation through the Cold War.

Some interesting statistics for the class of 1960 were presented: 27% entered the field of education; 19% went into agriculture-related occupations; 16% became business owners; 13% worked in the medical profession; 8% were involved in the trucking industry; with the remainder employed in various areas.

Special entertainment for the evening was Elvis imitator Gordy Clemens. As he crooned old favorites, a few even took to the dance floor.

Raffle tickets had been sold early in the evening, with the price being $1 each and 6 for $5. Winners were: Mary Beth Camden - cut glass bowl; Don Lipke - Pierceton historical throw; and Sue Collier - hand-carved walking stick

Stan Pequinot , from the class of 1961, invited everyone back to the 117th alumni banquet in June of 2011.

The evening ended with continued fellowship and recalling of PHS memories among individual groups.

MINUTES FOR 2011 PIERCETON HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI BANQUET

The 117th Pierceton High School Alumni Banquet was held at the Pierceton Elementary School Cafeteria on Saturday, June 4, 2011. The evening was hosted by the class of 1961. There were 252 paid reservations, at the cost of $11.00 each. Twenty-eight different classes of Pierceton High School were represented.

Stan Pequignot presided during the evening. The oldest class represented was the class of 1937, with members Maxine Cole and Imogene Hossler present. Jim Outcelt was recognized for having attended the alumni banquet for 71 years and Betty Rose Stahl for 66 years.

Lowell Druley led in invocation before the meal. The menu included Swiss steak and ham, au gratin potatoes, green beans, cole slaw, rolls, pie and brownies, lemonade, water, and coffee.

Jeanette Mast announced that the Monroe School Reunion would be held the next day on Sunday, June 5, 2011. Josephine Likens (age 102) recited a delightful poem. Those who served in the military service were recognized. The cooks and servers were thanked.

The secretary's report was read by Beth Boggs. The treasurer's report was given by Deb Thomas, with a balance to begin 2011 of $3257.98.

Memorial tributes to R. V. Reed were given by Lew Collier and Jim Irwin. Mr. Reed was on staff at Pierceton and Whitko from 1949 through 1986.

Fifteen members of the class of 1961, the 50-year class, were in attendance. The names of 12 deceased members were read. Stan spoke of some of the events of 1961:

- America in midst of space race
- first plane highjacked
- first nuclear tests performed
- Peace Corps established
- Castor leading Cuba
- Berlin Wall constructed
- sports figures included Roger Maris & Floyd Patterson; “Wide World of Sports” debuted
- entertainment names included Beach Boys, Dick Van Dyke, and Mr. Ed

Six members of the class of 1941 (70-year class) were introduced by Joyce Wrigley. Marilyn Tuttle Curtis introduced 4 members of the class of 1951 (60-year class). The class of 1971 (40-year class) was represented by Rex Werstler and had 5 members present.

John and Joan Hostetler Harris shared “Memories of Pierceton”, a narrated slide presentation of the history of the Pierceton area. They were also in the lobby before and after the banquet collecting old photos in preparation for the town’s 150th birthday.

Pierceton School Song

Cheer, cheer for old Pierceton High.
Shake down the echoes cheering her name.
Send a volley cheer on high.
Shake down the thunder from the sky.
Although the odds be great or small,
Old Pierceton High will win overall,
While her loyal sons are marching onward to victory!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
